

Luther's Large Catechism
The Creed
pp. 67 - 78

1. (67) What does the Creed teach us? How does this help us to be “doing what we should be doing?”
2. (68) Who and what are the Creed first intended for?
3. (69) What is included in the word “Creator?” What effect is this to have on us?
4. (70) How might the First Article “humble and terrify us?” What, then, would be our “daily work?”
5. (71) What does the Second Article mean by the word “Lord?” What has Christ done to earn this title?
6. (72) In what sense is the Second Article taught the entire year? Why is it taught so much?
7. (72) How does the name “Holy Spirit” distinguish God from all other spirits?
8. (73) How is it that you and I “know anything about Christ?”
9. (73-74) What was Luther’s judgment of his time “under the papacy?”
10. (74) How does Luther use the phrase “communion of saints” to demonstrate the importance of translation issues in a Christian’s life?
11. (75) Describe the “holy Christian church.” Why is this doctrine a comforting teaching?
12. (75) What is the primary function of this “holy Christian church?” How often does it carry out this function?
13. (76) Why is ongoing study of this Creed important?
14. (77) What are the three “confessions” of the Creed? How are these related to each other? (see other side)
15. Which part of the explanation of the Creed surprised you the most? Why?

Three Meanings of the Word Confession, and three applications of each...
